INVOKE PUBLIC SECTOR

Employment Agreement

Matthew Sacks

This Employment Agreement for "at will" employees ("Agreement") is entered into as of August 25, 2025 ("Effective Date")

BY AND BETWEEN: INVOKE PUBLIC SECTOR USA LLC, a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, having its principal place of business at 10 E. 40th Street, Suite 3310, New York, New York 10016

("Invoke" or "Corporation");

AND: MATTHEW SACKS, an individual residing at 6107 Village Dr Concord North Carolina 28027

("Employee");

(each a "Party", and together the "Parties").

In consideration of the covenants and agreements herein contained and the moneys to be paid hereunder, the Corporation hereby employs the Employee and the Employee hereby agrees to perform services as an employee of the Corporation, on an "at will" basis, upon the following terms and conditions:

1 Appointment

The Employee is hereby employed by the Corporation as Vice President, Federal Energy & Regulated Industries to render such services and to perform such tasks as set forth in Appendix A hereto and as may be assigned by the Corporation. The Corporation may, in its sole discretion, increase or reduce the duties, or modify the title and job description, of the Employee from time to time, and any such increase, reduction or modification shall not be deemed a termination of this Agreement.

2 Acceptance of Employment

The Employee accepts employment with the Corporation upon the terms set forth above and agrees to devote all the Employee's time, energy and ability to the interests of the Corporation, and to perform the Employee's duties in an efficient, trustworthy and business-like manner at all times, so as to maintain and improve the reputation and interests of the Corporation.

3 Compensation

In consideration of the services rendered by the Employee pursuant to this Agreement, the Corporation shall pay the Employee, with the methods decided by the Corporation and subject to such deductions and withholdings as are required by law or as agreed to by the Parties, the following compensation:

a. An annual base salary of $200,000 USD;

b. A monthly stipend of $775 USD for office space rental to be paid while employee resides in North Carolina. Upon relocation to Atlanta, GA this would be void.

c. Bonus/Commission structure listed in Appendix B

d. Allocation for cell phone plan, up to $75.00 USD per months (based on receipts);

e. Eligibility to participate in Invoke's Health & Welfare and Defined Contribution Benefits offering as of September 1, 2025.

Payment of any bonuses shall be at the complete discretion of the Corporation, and as such, no guarantee or representation that any bonuses will be paid has been made to the Employee.

4 Absences

4.1 Statutory Holidays

The Employee will be entitled to statutory holidays scheduled by the Corporation. The official statutory holidays' list for the upcoming year will be provided by the Human Resources Department in January of each year.

4.2 Paid Vacation

The Employee will be entitled to accrue 25 days of paid vacation leave for each full calendar year. For the first year of employment, the Employee will accrue a prorated amount of 9.375 vacation days (75 hours) based on the number of months (5/12) worked through the end of the year.

Vacation days must be taken between January 1 and December 31 of a given calendar year. The Employee shall schedule vacation days at times that are in keeping with the Corporation's reasonable business needs. The time of such vacation is to be determined by mutual agreement of the Parties.

The Employee may carry forward up to five (5) vacation days earned in a given year from one calendar year to the next, upon manager's approval.

Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Employee will be compensated for accrued but unused vacation days, and used but not accrued vacation days are due by the Employee to the Corporation and will be deducted from the last payroll payment if not reimbursed by the Employee.

4.3 Paid Absence Days

The Employee will be entitled to five (5) days of paid absences for each full calendar year.

Docusign Envelope ID: 2D36DEE3-DAEB-43DE-AFF1-254D871C341E

Paid absence days may be used for sickness or injury, or for valid personal and emergency reason.

If the Employee must be absent from work due to sickness or injury, the Employee or someone on the Employee's behalf should inform the Employee's immediate superior of the reason for the Employee's absence as soon as possible but no later than 9:00 a.m. on the working day on which absence first occurred. At any stage of absence, the Corporation reserves the right to ask the Employee to produce a medical certificate to justify the Employee's absence. In respect of absence lasting more than five (5) calendar days, a medical certificate must be systematically produced to the Corporation.

If the Employee must be absent from work for personal reason, the Employee needs to justify the absence and to inform the Employee's immediate superior of the reason for the Employee's absence as soon as possible but no later than 9:00 a.m. on the working day on which absence occurs.

Any paid absence days not used in a given year will be forfeited at the end of that year.

Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Employee will not be entitled to compensation for any unused paid absences days.

5 Withholding

All sums payable to Employee under this Agreement will be reduced by all federal, state, local, and other withholdings and similar taxes and payments required by applicable law, and by deductions and withholdings as agreed to by the Parties.

6 Consultation Fees

The Corporation shall have exclusive authority to determine the fees, or a procedure for establishing the fees, to be charged to clients by the Corporation for services that are provided by the Employee. All sums paid to the Employee or the Corporation in the way of fees, in cash or in kind, or otherwise for services of the Employee, shall, except as otherwise specifically agreed by the Corporation, be and remain the property of the Corporation and shall be included in the Corporation's name in such checking account or accounts as the Corporation may from time to time designate.

7 Clients and Client Records

The Corporation shall have the authority to determine who will be accepted as clients of the Corporation, and the Employee recognizes that such clients accepted are clients of the Corporation and not the Employee. All client records and files of any type concerning clients of the Corporation shall belong to and remain the property of the Corporation, notwithstanding the subsequent termination of the employment.

Docusign Envelope ID: 2D36DEE3-DAEB-43DE-AFF1-254D871C341E

8 Policies and Procedures

The Corporation shall have the authority to establish from time to time the policies and procedures to be followed by the Employee in performing services for the Corporation. This may include, but is not necessarily limited to, employment policies, computer use policies, internet access policies, email policies, and all other policies, procedures, directives, and mandates established by the Corporation, whether in written form or formally adopted. The Employee shall abide by the provisions of any contract entered by the Corporation under which the Employee provides services. The Employee shall comply with the terms and conditions of any and all contracts entered by the Corporation.

9 Termination

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that the Employee is an "at will" Employee of the Corporation. As such, no guaranteed term of employment is created hereby. Both the Corporation and the Employee acknowledge and agree that the Employee shall be an "at will" employee and that the Employee can be dismissed by the Corporation at any time, and without warning, with or without cause.

During the term of the Employee's employment, the Employee may have to follow training sessions that will be paid by the Corporation. In the event of termination of the present Agreement by the Employee, the Employee hereby undertakes to repay to the Corporation any amount in excess of $1,000 that the Corporation will have paid, during a period of twelve (12) months before the end of employment, for the training of the Employee, including the cost of the training and any related expenses, such as, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, travel expenses and accommodations. The Employee hereby expressly authorizes the Corporation to offset the amounts due to the Employee with any amount due by the Employee, and representing training costs to be reimbursed.

10 Confidentiality

Employee recognizes and acknowledges that all records with respect to clients, business associates, customer or referral lists, contracting parties and referral sources of the Corporation, and all personal, financial and business and proprietary information of the Corporation, its employees, officers, directors and shareholders obtained by the Employee during the term of this Agreement and not generally known to the public (the "Confidential Information") are valuable, special and unique and proprietary assets of the Corporation's business. The Employee hereby agrees not to, during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, at any time, directly or indirectly, use, sell, circulate or otherwise distribute, or in any way disclose any Confidential Information, in full or in part, in written or other form, to any person, firm, corporation, association or other entity, or utilize the same for any reason or purpose whatsoever other than for the benefit of and pursuant to authorization granted by the Corporation. Any document or work assembled or composed by the Employee that contains Confidential Information shall constitute and be treated as Confidential Information. The Employee shall not publish or allow the publication of any material containing Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the Corporation.

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that Confidential Information and the documents, works, instruments or other media containing Confidential Information, including copies or extracts on any media, is the exclusive property of the Corporation, shall remain the exclusive property of the Corporation and must be returned to the Corporation immediately upon request by the Corporation or at the latest at the time of termination of employment. The Employee further acknowledges and agrees that the right of the Corporation to maintain such Confidential Information as confidential constitutes a proprietary right which the Corporation is entitled to protect.

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the disclosure of Confidential Information where such disclosure must be made in response to the formal request of a governmental body, agency or a court of law but the Employee shall inform the Corporation of such request immediately and prior to disclosure to allow the Corporation to take the appropriate measures to contest such request for disclosure if it so decides. The Employee shall fully cooperate with the Corporation in its efforts to contest such request for disclosure.

11 Inventions

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that any and all work product of the Employee, either alone or with others, that is conceived or created during the Employee's employment with the Corporation is the exclusive property of the Corporation. This shall include any and all copyrights, trade secrets, confidential information, patents, trademarks, trade dress, ideas, concepts, plans, business plans, business concepts, techniques, inventions, drawings, artwork, logos, graphics, web pages, databases, computer software (source code, object code and related documentation), programs, CGI's, plug ins, applications, brochures, inventions, marketing plans and concepts, and all other ideas and work product of the Employee, (collectively the "Inventions").

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that all creations shall be "works made for hire". The Employee hereby assigns to the Corporation all of Employee's right, title and interest in and to such Inventions. Moreover, the Employee hereby waives any and all moral rights that might otherwise accrue with respect to any Innovations. Notwithstanding the fact that this material may be considered to be a work made for hire, the Employee agrees, during the Employee's employment and thereafter, which covenant shall survive any termination of the employment relationship, to execute any and all documents requested by the Corporation to confirm the Corporation's ownership and control of all such material, including but not limited to assignments of copyright, confirmations of work for hire status, waivers of proprietary or moral rights, copyright application, and any other documents requested by the Corporation.

12 Property

Employee acknowledges and agrees that while employed by the Corporation the Employee may be provided with use of computer equipment and other property of the Corporation. The use and possession of the such items shall be subject to any policies, requirements or restrictions established by the Corporation. Such items may only be used in performance of the Employee's duties for the Corporation. On request of the Corporation, the Employee shall immediately deliver any such items to the Corporation. Upon termination of employment, Employee shall have the affirmative duty to return any such item to the Corporation whether a request is made or not. The obligation to return Corporation property shall extend and include any and all work product, client property, proprietary rights, intangible property, and all other property of the Corporation regardless of the form or medium.

13 Non-Solicitation of Employees

The Employee agrees that during the Employee's employment with the Corporation and for a period of twenty-four (24) months following the termination of employment, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, with or without cause, the Employee will not attempt, on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, whether directly or indirectly, to offer employment to or solicit the employment or engagement of or otherwise entice away from the employment of the Corporation any other employee or independent contractor of the Corporation or otherwise encourage or attempt to encourage any other employee or independent contractor of the Corporation to leave the Corporation.

14 Non-Solicitation of Clients

The Employee agrees that during the Employee's employment with the Corporation and for a period of twenty-four (24) months following the termination of employment, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, with or without cause, the Employee will not, on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, whether directly or indirectly, in any manner or at any time, solicit or encourage any person, firm, corporation or other business entity, who are clients, business associates or referral sources of the Corporation to cease doing business with the Corporation or to do business with the Employee.

15 Non-Competition

The Employee agrees that for as long as the present Agreement is in force, the Employee will not, on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, whether directly or indirectly, in any capacity whatsoever, alone, through or in connection with any person or entity, carry on, be engaged in, or have any financial or other interest in or be otherwise commercially involved in any endeavor, activity or business, which is in whole or in part in competition with the Corporation.

16 Conflict of Interest

Employee shall not engage in any other business while employed by the Corporation. Employee shall not engage in any activity that conflicts with the Employee's duties to the Corporation. Employee shall not provide any services to clients or prospective clients of the Corporation outside of the provision of services for the Corporation, whether such services are provided with or without compensation or remuneration.

Docusign Envelope ID: 2D36DEE3-DAEB-43DE-AFF1-254D871C341E

17 Restrictive Covenant

The Employee acknowledges that the Corporation, through its employment of the Employee, has provided the Employee with Confidential Information, business and professional contacts, training and experience, and the ability to service and otherwise have access to the Corporation's clients. The Employee further acknowledges that such Confidential Information, business and professional contacts, training and experience, and the ability to service and otherwise have access to the Corporation's clients are the result of the Employee's employment by the Corporation. In consideration of the foregoing and of the benefits generally provided to the Employee by the Corporation pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and otherwise, the Employee agrees to abide and be bound by the restrictions and prohibitions of this Agreement, which restrictions are intended by the Parties to extend to any and all activities of the Employee, whether as an independent contractor, partner or joint venture, or as an officer, director, stockholder, agent, employee or salesman for any person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity, or otherwise.

Each restrictive covenant on the part of the Employee set forth in this Agreement shall be construed as a covenant independent of any other covenant or provisions of this Agreement or any other agreement which the Corporation and the Employee may have, fully performed and not executory, and the existence of any claim or cause of action by the Employee against the Corporation whether predicated upon another covenant or provision of this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Corporation of any other covenant.

All restrictive covenants contained in this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

18 Injunction

Employee and Corporation recognize and expressly agree that the extent of damages to Corporation in the event of a breach by the Employee of the terms of Sections 10 to 17, of this Agreement would be impossible to ascertain, that the irreparable harm arising out of any breach shall be irrefutably presumed, and that the remedy at law for any breach will be inadequate to compensate the Corporation. Consequently, the Employee agrees that in the event of a breach of the terms of Sections 10 to 17, of this Agreement, in addition to any other relief to which Corporation may be entitled, the Corporation shall be entitled to enforce the covenant by injunctive or other equitable relief ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

19 Venue and Court Proceedings

The Employee and the Corporation hereby agree that the venue of any action, proceeding, counterclaim, cross claim, or other litigation relating to, involving, or resulting from the enforcement of this covenant shall be in Delaware. In any action or proceeding by the Employee relating to or involving the enforcement of the covenant, and any counterclaim, cross claim or other litigation which may be asserted or brought against the Corporation, the Employee hereby expressly waives any and all right to a trial by jury with respect to the action, proceeding or other litigation resulting from or involving the enforcement of this covenant. Further, in any action or proceeding by Corporation to obtain a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction, the Employee hereby agrees that the Corporation shall not be required to post an injunction bond in excess of the principal sum of $10,000.00 USD in order to obtain a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction. Should the Corporation's action for a temporary restraining order and/or motion for preliminary injunction be granted in whole or in part and should the Corporation be ultimately unsuccessful in obtaining a permanent injunction to enforce the covenant, the Employee hereby waives any and all rights the Employee may have against the Corporation for any injuries or damages, including consequential damages, sustained by the Employee and arising directly or indirectly from the issuance of the temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction.

In the event that either Party is required to engage the services of legal counsel to enforce the terms and conditions of this Agreement against the other Party, regardless of whether such action results in litigation, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of legal assistants, and other costs from the other Party, which shall include any fees or costs incurred at trial or in any appellate proceeding, and expenses and other costs, including any accounting expenses incurred.

20 Indemnification

The Employee hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Corporation and its officers, directors, shareholders and employees harmless from and against any loss, claim, damage or expense, and/or all costs of prosecution or defense of their rights hereunder, whether in judicial proceedings, including appellate proceedings, or whether out of court, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, attorneys' fees, and all costs and expenses of litigation, arising from or growing out of the Employee's breach or threatened breach of any covenant contained herein.

21 Limitations of Authority

Without the express written consent from the Corporation, the Employee shall have no apparent or implied authority to: (i) pledge the credit of the Corporation or any of its other employees; (ii) bind the Corporation under any contract, agreement, note, mortgage or otherwise; (iii) release or discharge any debt due the Corporation unless the Corporation has received the full amount thereof; or (iv) sell, mortgage, transfer or otherwise dispose of any assets of the Corporation.

Docusign Envelope ID: 2D36DEE3-DAEB-43DE-AFF1-254D871C341E

22 Severability

The invalidity or unenforceability of one provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and the Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.

23 No Waiver

This Agreement shall be construed and regulated under and by the laws of the State of Delaware and shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, but may not be assigned except as otherwise provided elsewhere herein.

24 Entire Agreement

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be changed only by an agreement in writing signed by the Party against whom any waiver, change, amendment, modification, or discharge is sought.

25 Notices

Any and all notices or other communication provided for herein, shall be given by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, in case of the Corporation to its principal office, and in the case of the Employee to the Employee's residence address set forth on the first page of this Agreement or to such other address as may be designated by the Employee.
